NTI COVID-19 VACCINATION DRAW WINNERS ANNOUNCED

(April 29, 2022 – Iqaluit, Nunavut) Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) President Aluki Kotierk today announced the winners of the COVID-19 vaccination draw.

Nunavut Inuit, enrolled under the Nunavut Agreement, over the age of five were automatically entered into the draw. The draw was conducted in Rankin Inlet by Vice-President James Eetoolook and staff and was witnessed by elder Hannah Benoit.

Winners in Nunavut receive a snowmobile. There were also two cash prizes of $5,000 each drawn for Inuit residing outside of Nunavut Settlement Area.

Individuals who had their names drawn had until April 29, 2022, to show proof of vaccination. Adults and children who received Moderna or Pfizer had to show proof of two doses and adults who received Johnson & Johnson's vaccine had to show proof of one dose.

NTI received over 300 new enrolment applications during the vaccination campaign. To update your name or address, call toll-free 1-888-236-5400 or email enrolment@tunngavik.com. Application forms to enroll are available from the Community Liaison Officers or on NTI's website: www.tunngavik.com.

NTI's COVID-19 vaccination campaign, including this snowmobile draw, is funded by the Government of Canada's Indigenous Community Support Fund.

The COVID-19 vaccine is still our best defense against the spread of COVID-19. For more information on COVID-19, the vaccines Moderna and Pfizer, OR to book your appointment, please contact your local health center.
