For Immediate Release

NTI Election for President 2024

(October 7, 2024 – Iqaluit, Nunavut) Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) will hold an election for President on December 9, 2024. The nomination period for declaring candidacy runs from October 28 to November 1, 2024. Please note the following:

- Eligible candidates for election as a member of the NTI Executive must be Inuit enrolled under the Nunavut Agreement, who are 16 years of age or older on December 9th, and eligible to vote. Full election rules and procedures will be included in the Nomination package.
- Nomination forms can be obtained from Monica Ell-Kanayuk, the Chief Returning Officer (CRO), Community Liaison Officers (CLOs) or NTI's website once the nomination period opens on October 28, 2024, at 9 a.m. EST.
- The person must submit completed nomination papers to the CRO. Candidates are responsible for ensuring that nomination papers sent to the CRO are received.
- If nomination papers are not received by November 1 at 5 p.m. local time, a potential candidate will not be permitted to run in the election.
- As a potential candidate you may begin campaigning with your own resources starting on August 6, 2024. However, you are not permitted to fundraise until you are officially declared a candidate by the CRO.
- Candidates are required to provide an original criminal record check dated within 90 days prior to the opening day of the nomination.
- Candidates may withdraw their nomination papers any time before 5 p.m. local time on November 4, 2024.
