

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

NTI Announces Official Results for the 2024 Presidential Election

(December 10, 2024 – Iqaluit, Nunavut) Today, Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) Chief Returning Officer Monica Ell-Kanayuk announced that Jeremy Tunraluk was elected as President of NTI with 34.4% of votes.

Jeremy Tunraluk will serve as President for a four-year term, until December 2028.

The NTI President is a core member of NTI Board of Directors and Executive Committee, as well as the Chairperson, Director and/or Trustee of the following entities and organizations:

Nunavut Tunngavik Foundation: Delivering programs related to promoting Inuit languages, culture and healing from residential schools

Makigiaqta Inuit Training Corporation: Delivering programs related to Inuit training and education

NTI Economic and Social Initiatives Inc.: Holding company for Atuqtuarvik Corporation that providing financing for Inuit Firms

Nunavut Social Development Council: Established under Article 32 of the Nunavut Agreement

Nunavut Elders Supplemental Trust: Providing a monthly payment to Elders from NTI's portion of resource royalties, a program called Uquujait Innarnut

Nunavut Inuit Resource Revenue Trust: Managing resource revenue from Inuit Owned Lands

Voter turnout was approximately 67% per cent. A complete breakdown of election results is available at elections.tunngavik.com

For further information:

Chief Returning Officer (CRO)
Monica Ell-Kanayuk
(867) 222-3519
nticro@ayaya.ca

Office of the CRO
Jason Roberts
(867) 222-2487
jasonr@ayaya.ca