NTI Election nomination period reconfirmed for November 2-13, 2020

(November 5, 2020 – Iqaluit, Nunavut) Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) will hold an election for President on December 14, 2020.

Chief Returning Officer (CRO) Kathleen Sigurdson announced today that the nomination period for the election of President is confirmed to be November 2 to 13, 2020, as printed in the candidate's handbook and nomination forms. The extended period will enable some candidates to obtain their Criminal Record Check from the RCMP detachments, which are running on a reduced schedule due to COVID-19 and solve any inconsistency in previous election announcements or material.

Candidates must file their nomination papers with the CRO no later than November 13, 2020, 5 p.m. local time and are responsible for ensuring that nomination papers are received. Candidates have until November 16, 2020 at 5 p.m. local time to withdraw their nomination.

Nomination forms for the election of President are available from the Chief Returning Officer (CRO) Kathleen Sigurdson, Community Liaison Officers (CLO), Ayaya Communications (Office of the CRO), or from NTI's website.
